

Cyber threats target hospitals frequently.

Ransomware attacks increased 50% in 2024.

Zero trust architecture mitigates these risks.

Healthcare systems require robust security measures.

Patient data protection is a critical priority.